Heritage Hills: Volume 1: Winter Available Now

Purchase your copy today of Historic Preservations, Inc.'s softbound photography book "Heritage Hills: Volume 1: Winter" by Philip Busey Jr. and forward by John Michael Williams. The books are $35.00 each and all proceeds go to HPI.

Released this fall, the first volume is a collection of 18 photographs of homes in Heritage Hills. All photos were taken with a monochrome camera during the snowstorms of 2020-21. The book is exclusively sold through HPI and is a showcase of the architectural beauty of the neighborhood.

The book is a great Holiday gift, coffee table book or addition to any home library collection.

Busey and his family are residents of Heritage Hills. His cityscape and landscape photographs are available for purchase through Exhibit C Gallery in Bricktown and the Oklahoma City Museum of Art Store. His work can also be found at roamingbison.net and Instagram account Roamingbison\_.

Mr. Williams is a well-known resident of Heritage Hills and regarded by many as one of our most important neighborhood advocates and historians. His elegantly written forward captures the unique history and importance of our neighborhood.

Let's make this winter season extra special for the Wilson community! Please sign up HERE to purchase gifts for families who could use a little cheer this time of year!

This year they are asking for each child to receive three toy gifts, individually bagged or wrapped. Please do not exceed $100 for the three gifts combined. They are hoping this will keep the Angel Tree fair and equitable for each student. All together, the gifts need to fit inside a copy paper box. Label all gifts with the child's tag number (noted in the SignUp Genius link) so they can ensure gifts get to the correct families. Please drop gifts off in the Wilson front office between Wednesday, December 1 and no later than Friday, December 10.

If you have any questions, please feel free to email wilsonartspta@gmail.com.

Thank you so much for making Wilson spirits bright this winter season!
