Heritage Hills Residents Honored: Marva Ellard and Rand Elliott

Downtown Oklahoma City Partnership recently honored Heritage Hills' residents Marva Ellard and Rand Elliott. Marva Ellard, a real estate developer, received the Neal Horton Award for revitalization of downtown, especially her passion and work in the renaissance of Midtown. Rand Elliott, Principal of Rand Elliott Architects, received the Dean A. McGee Award for his lifetime contributions to downtown, noting his work both above and below ground in downtown Oklahoma City. Congratulations to both!

Two lovely articles, detailing the many contributions Ellard and Elliott have made, may be found here: The Alliance for Economic Development of Oklahoma City and The Oklahoma City Sentinel

Overholser Mansion to Open New Fashion Exhibit

A new exhibit, “Early Influencers: How Anna Overholser & Henry Ione Overholser Perry Set the Style for Oklahoma City Women, 1903–1929,” will open to the public on Friday, July 1, at the Henry and Anna Overholser Mansion in Oklahoma City.

The exhibit will feature fashions and accessories worn by or inspired by Anna and Henry Ione that will be displayed on every floor of the historic home. A fashion timeline, as well as archival photos of the Overholser women and other trendsetters of the period, will be dotted throughout the displays.

A member preview of the exhibit will take place on the evening of Thursday, June 30, from 6 to 8 p.m. for Preservation Oklahoma and Oklahoma Historical Society members only.

The exhibit will remain open through the summer until August 31.

The Henry and Anna Overholser Mansion is located at 405 NW 15th St. in Oklahoma City. It is open Tuesday through Sunday from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. For more information about tours and admission, please call 405-525-5325 or visit www.overholsermansion.org.

Preservation Oklahoma, Inc. is the state’s only private, nonprofit membership organization that is dedicated to promoting, supporting and coordinating historic preservation activities throughout the state. To learn more about Preservation Oklahoma, please visit www.preservationok.org.

The Henry and Anna Overholser Mansion is an affiliate of the Oklahoma Historical Society. The mission of the Oklahoma Historical Society is to collect, preserve and share the history and culture of the state of Oklahoma and its people. Founded in 1893 by members of the Territorial Press Association, the OHS maintains museums, historic sites and affiliates across the state. Through its research archives, exhibits, educational programs and publications the OHS chronicles the rich history of Oklahoma. For more information about the OHS, please visit www.okhistory.org.

Tuesday Tunes at the Mansion

Tuesday, July 12

6-8 pm

Join us for the next Tuesday Tunes! Bring a picnic and a blanket and enjoy an evening of music and snow cones on the lawn of the Overholser Mansion!

Spring Cocktail Party

Neighbors gathered at the home of Lisa and Bentley Edmonds to welcome the most recent additions to Heritage Hills. Many new and familiar faces joined the fun for a beautiful evening before the summer heatwave set in. Thanks to all for a festive evening, notably the Edmonds for hosting and Erin Hoenig Sullivan for planning!

14th Street Cul-de-sac Party

The 14th Street Cul-de-sac recently held a progressive porch party. Heather and Brad Wilson hosted the pirate themed stop, Ali and Andrew Zillner a Mexican themed stop, and Kristen Cole and Nick Hunley a sweet treats stop. The Cul-de-sac was able to welcome their newest neighbors Amelia and Riley Marquis.

City of OKC's Watering

Oklahoma City and surrounding communities have implemented Progressive Water Conservation Stages. Mandatory odd/even watering (Stage 1) is now permanently in effect. If the drought worsens, additional conservation measures will take effect. (implemented April 30, 2013)

How does odd/even watering work? It's simple.

If your address ends in an even number, you can water on even-numbered calendar days. If your address ends in an odd number, you can water on odd-numbered calendar days. There are 5 stages:

	Combined Lake Capacity
1 Mandatory Odd/Even Lawn Watering Last number of the building address - 1, 3, 5, 7, 9 - water odd number days Last number of the building address - 0, 2, 4, 6, 8 - water even number days	Normal Level (Always In Effect)
2 2 Day Per Week Lawn Watering Single-family resident address ends in odd number - Saturdays & Wednesdays Single-family resident address ends in even number - Sundays & Thursdays All others - Tuesdays & Fridays (duplexes, triplexes, homeowner association properties, commercial, industrial, government)	50% or less
3 1 Day Per Week Lawn Watering Single-family resident address ends in 1 or 3 - Saturdays Single-family resident address ends in 5, 7 or 9 - Wednesdays Single-family resident address ends in 0 or 2 - Sundays Single-family resident address ends in 4, 6 or 8 - Thursdays Duplexes, triplexes, homeowner association properties - Tuesdays Commercial, industrial, government, etc. - Fridays	45% or less
4 Hand Watering Gardens & Flower Beds Only Commercial Car Washes with Water Recycling Operations Only	40% or less
5 Ban on all Outdoor Watering & Vehicle Washing	35% or less

- First offense: $119 fine plus $83 court cost = $202
- Second offense: $269 fine plus $83 court cost = $352
- Third offense: $519 fine plus $83 court cost = $602
- Fourth offense: $750 bond and up to $1,200 fine for those who continue to violate the program
