Heritage Hills Easter Egg Hunt!

Men in Tweed Present...

FROM THE FIELD A BRIEF REVIEW OF THE HUNT

The 2023 Annual Heritage Hills Easter Egg Hunt held on Saturday, April 1 at the Overholser Mansion lawn was a rousing success. Easter eggs were plentiful, resulting in a seventy-three second, Lord of The Flies-esque demonstration of unbridled will. We almost lost our glasses. Donut holes and champagne were plentiful. MIT staff have been discussing the Easter burritos, which far surpassed expectations, all week. Tip of the MIT hat to Erin Hoenig Sullivan, John Sullivan, Lu Hoenig, Addison Archer, The Easter Bunny, and Heritage Hills Social Committee members for planning such a wonderful morning for our community. In case you weren't able to grab an egg this year, we leave you with a haiku review to tide you over until next spring.
